Re: MUR 5871

Dear Mr. Kidd:

On June 8, 2006, the Federal Election Commission ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities that you permitted your name to be used to effect a contribution made in the name of another person. On August 19, 2008, after considering all the evidence, the Commission closed its file in this matter.

Nevertheless, the Commission admonishes you for an apparent knowing and willful violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441f by permitting your name to be used to effect a contribution made in the name of another person. You should take steps to ensure that this activity does not occur in the future.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003).

If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tracey L. Eigon", with a large, stylized flourish extending to the right.
